START MEMO NOMINATING-JUSTIFICATION: Nominee is a model for empowering women through media and their contribution to the society in all aspects. She has a good chance to hold a position in one of the TV's channels. Her participation in a program related to empowerment of women will help her understand the rights of women and the importance in their participation in the political process. She is considered a young "social/political" influential leader in her professional community. An IV program would educate her on new "democracies" and engage her in dialogues with American influential young leaders to encounter new ideas, which she might be able to apply in her community. Program would also assist in addressing social and economic challenges facing women in general and means to face them. Since she is a media figure, program could enhance her creativity and awareness of the impact of the media on the advancement of women's rights
